HORIZONS 1988

Now Is The Time To Follow The Wind, To Walk Alone.
And A Star Will Show The Way, Above The Clouds, Beyond
The Sea.

And Now Is The Time, Now And Farewell, And As We Part
You Taught Me Well, You Gave Me Strength, You Showed The Way; I'll Not Forget You.

Like An Eagle I Will Soar Above The Clouds; I Will Spread My
Wings And Fly Into The Sun.

Like An Eagle I Will Race
I Will Fly To Places Yet Unseen,

Go Beyond My Wildest Dream, Know That You Are Watching
Over Me.

And All Alone I Follow The Stars Above As My Guide.
As My Guide, I Trust In You To Show The Way To Me, Beyond The Sea.

And Now Is The Time, Now And Farewell, And As We Part,
You Taught Me Well, You Gave Me Strength, You Showed The Way, I'll Not Forget You.

Like An Eagle I Will Soar Above The Clouds, I Will Spread My Wings And Fly Into The Sun.

Dear Father Frank,

We, The Students Of St. Josephs College, Have Been Very Fortunate In That You Have Taught Here And Shared With Us Your Knowledge And Friendship. Your Concern For Other Young Adults Does Not Stop At This College, Though. It Is Obvious Through Your Efforts To Create And Maintain Hope House, An Outreach Center For Young Adults. Along With These Endeavors You Find Time To Share Your Abundance Of Knowledge And Compassion With Other People Throughout The New York Area. In A World That Is Always Changing, Your Service To Others Has Always Remained Constant, Radiating The Spirit Of Christ In The '80's To All Who Know You.

It Is In Appreciation For All That You Have Given To Others That The Class Of 1988 Would Like To Say Thank You By Dedicating This Year's Yearbook To You.

*Sincerely,
Horizons '88*

Administration, Faculty And Staff

Dear Graduates of the Class of 1988,

On June 4th, as you gather together to receive personally a baccalaureate degree from St. Joseph's College, the richness of unity, diversity, uniqueness, and individuality of the Class of 1988 will be symbolized. The event also represents for you a time of reflection and setting new goals with implications for growth and change. On behalf of all Faculty and Administrators, I congratulate you and wish you success as life calls you to another beginning and challenges you to leave some of what was in exchange for what you can become.

Today we frequently read that all high-performing successful people set clear goals for themselves. In redefining your own goals, our hope is that you will follow your interests, your areas of potential and strength, and your values so that you will be working and laboring at what you love and what reflects your philosophy of life. The sense of purpose and achievement that underlies most human happiness usually comes with long hours and intense effort working at what one enjoys. We are confident that in all you do you will reflect the goal of the College: to affirm the dignity, freedom, and value of every person. Our belief in you is that as members of the global human family you will work as collaborators, not competitors; as protectors of the earth's resources, not destroyers; and as life-givers and peacemakers among all cultures and countries, not exploiters.

We rejoice with you and are proud of you. May you continue to be women and men who seek to perceive clearly, to learn more, and to reach higher. Our prayer is that you will always "act justly, love tenderly, and walk humbly with your God." God bless you.

Sincerely,

Sister Jean Marie

My time here at St. Joseph's has been spent in an attempt at contributing to the betterment of the college. Ironically, my involvement has also become a source of betterment to myself. As I complete my college career, my love and appreciation for the community here at St. Joseph's increases as the days pass.

All too often, attendance at college is seen as a "necessary evil". I have learned that in order to benefit fully from all that college can offer, one must enter wholeheartedly into an active relationship with those aspects of college that will enrich his or her life. I have discovered that college is far more than classroom learning. It is the sum of formal learning and personal service to one's college, fellow students and other members of the community. With this in mind, I deem the education provided here at St. Joseph's an invaluable asset to the formation of any student's character.

My last four years at St. Joe's have been extremely rewarding to me. More to the point, they've been the best four years of my life. I've learned so much- about life, other people and about myself. The people of St. Joseph's have been everything to me these last four years. But now it is time to move on.

Even though I am going to miss St. Joseph's College the students, faculty and administration, I will never forget it, because I carry it with me. Each and every person I've had the good fortune of knowing has given me a piece of themselves which I have made a part of myself. I am forever indebted for their care, friendship and love.

St. Joseph's College is going places and I am grateful that I have been a part of it. And while my job here might be finished, the job of future graduates has not yet begun. To them I have nothing but best wishes, realizing that through you, St. Joseph's College will stay just as I will always remember it: a special community made up of a very special group of people.

I will miss St. Joseph's College, but I'll never forget it: a tradition of academic freedom and academic excellence; a tradition of open dialogue, individual attention, innovative teaching and creative experimentation; a tradition of oneness in a community based on dignity respect and care; a tradition which I am honored to have been a part of.

Like An Eagle
Words & Music by Carl Strommen

*Now is the time to follow the wind, to walk alone.
And a star will show the way, above the clouds,
beyond the sea*

*And now is the time, now and farewell, and as we part you taught me well, you gave me strength, you
showed the way; I'll not forget you.*

Like an eagle I will soar above the clouds; I will spread my wings and fly into the sun.

*Like an eagle I will race above the stars; I will fly to places yet unseen, go beyond my wildest dream,
know that you are watching over me.*

*And all alone I follow the stars above as my guide.
As my guide, I trust in you to show the way to me,
beyond the sea.*

*And now is the time, now and farewell, and as we
part, you taught me well, you gave me strength, you
showed the way, I'll not forget you.*

Like an eagle I will soar above the clouds, I will spread my wings and fly into the sun.

*Like an eagle I will race above the stars; I will fly to places yet unseen, go beyond my wildest dream,
know that you are watching over me alone.*

I can fly with the eagle to the mountain high, race with the eagle to the rising sun, and soar with the eagle so far beyond my dreams; like an eagle I will fly.

Like an eagle I will soar above the clouds; I will spread my wings and fly into the sun.

*Like an eagle I will race above the stars; I will fly to places yet unseen, go beyond my my wildest dream,
know that you are watching over me.*

*Like an eagle I will race above the clouds; like an eagle I will fly, like an eagle I will fly — fly — fly
the highest mountain — fly — fly above the clouds
— Like an eagle I will fly.*
